for maha's shane delia, coming from a large maltese family means dining is more than a meal, it is a way of life. the delia family crest 'fortis et hospitalis' or 'strength in hospitality', originates from his ancestors' dedication to celebrating a loving community of friends and family, which shane has passionately continued at maha.

we offer an extensive australian and international wine list, compiled after thorough research (and drinking!) by our sommeliers. from the well known, to the boutique, from the bekaa valley in lebanon and galilee in israel to the old world wines of france and italy; our wine list is ever evolving as we strive to bring you the best wines to compliment maha's cuisine. we invite you to ask our sommeliers to recommend their latest discovery.

the full dining experience involves more than just wine. arak or raki is traditionally drunk with mezze. an anise flavoured middle eastern spirit, often referred to as 'lion's milk', not only because it turns cloudy when water is added, but because it takes the heart of a lion to drink it. maha has a broad range of arak and raki to discover and enjoy.

our cocktail list is inspired and unique, showcasing middle eastern liqueurs in a delight for the senses. enquire about our cocktail of the week as our beverage team work their magic with the exotic ingredients maha has to offer.

what better way to finish your maha experience than with a dark sweet turkish coffee or our house blend of moroccan mint tea whilst smoking a shisha in our relaxing lounge.

spoilt for choice? challenge our beverage team to come up with the right drink for the right occassion.

raki and arak play a major part in middle eastern culture.
it is a drink similar to ouzo from greece and pastis from france and is ideal as an aperitif. however, throughout the levant it is traditionally drunk while grazing on mezze dishes as the anise compliments the salts and spices beautifully. so why not sample some 'lions milk' from a selection we have chosen that best represents the diversity of this noble drink.

sake

chikuma nishiki 'kizan sanban' 1800ml — nagano — 15 — 270 unmai ginjo nama genshu

this is a fruity and full bodied ginjo. fermentation is stopped early to retain a high level of sugar, this combined with its refreshing acidity creates a smooth rounded palate with flavours of apple and aniseed.

mutemuka shuzo 'mutemuka' 720ml — kochi — 150 junmai muroka nama genshu unfiltered, unpasteurised and undiluted resulting in a full bodied sake. the nose is dominated with yeast extract and a rich palate that is unique with jasmine rice, whte radish and an earthy taste.

kidoizumi shuzo 'hakugyokuko' 720ml — chiba — 165 junmai ginjo yamahai muroka nama genshu this sake is non filtered, unpasteurised and made using a tradional hot fermentation. honeydew melon and lychee on the palate on the palate with a robust finish.

mukai shuzo 'ine mankai' 720ml — kyoto — 185
junmai genshu

kuniko mukai constantly experiments with unusual rice and yeast combinations. this sake is rose petal sake with high levels of sweetness and balanced by high acidity, complex smokey cherry, vanilla. on the palate its savoury with flavours of pomegranate and vanilla.

nakano bc 'chokyo' 300ml — wakayama — 95
junmai kijoshu koshu

kijoshu means noble-brew sake.to make kijoshu , the brew master does not add distilled alcohol, but instead a full bodied sake from previous years to stop fermentation. chokyu has an amazingly deep colour and a nose dominated of porcini mushrooms and a palate of burnt toffee.
